

Welcome!

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of Studio Players. We are always happy for new people to join our family of directors, techies, ushers, actors and “general get things done” volunteers. There is always something to be done whether you have the knowledge of how to or not. A willingness to learn and an interest in theater is all you need.

Your membership to Studio Players provides you with the monthly Cue Sheet (newsletter) and a Studio Players coffee mug. Also, you are entitled to a 50% discount off of one ticket for your personal use to each of the exciting main stage productions this season. In addition, a member may bring up to 3 friends with them to a Thursday night performance at half price. Another benefit to Studio membership is that your significant other can come see you perform again and again for half price after paying for a full price ticket. Please see Box Office Manager for policy.
