

I'D ORDER LOVE

[WAITER (M3)]

cue WAITER (M3): Still, if you'd all indulge me for just a few minutes, I thought I'd share my latest musical extravaganza with you. [MUSIC]

Music & Lyrics by Alan Zachary & Michael Weiner

(con'd) WAITER (M3): Hit the lights, Jorge! This goes out to all the lovers... and future lovers out there... I'm looking at you table four...

Casual Lounge Feel, Molto Rubato

CASEY: Oh my God.

AARON: Sweet Jesus.

WAITER (M3):

1 2 3 4 5 6 I've

7 8 9 10 made my ca - reer as a wait - er. And my job, well, it nev - er gets old. I've seen

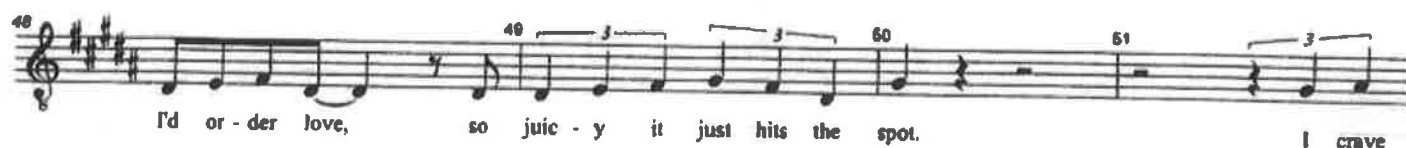

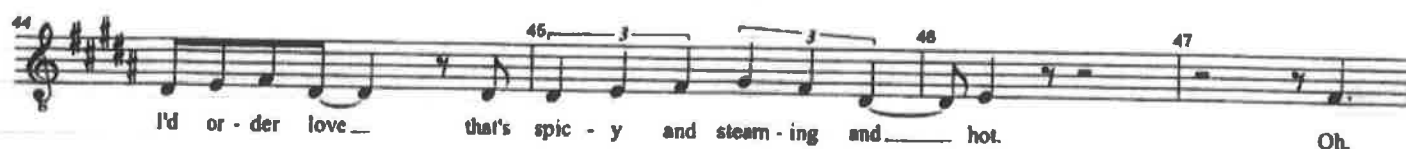

11 12 13 14 ro - manc - es bloom, wild af - fairs meet their doom, eve - ry night, some new sight to be - hold. Yet I

15 16 17 18 find, as I wait on my ta - blea, and serve them their bas - kets of bread, I

19 20 21 22 23 can't help but think, as they pick out a drink, of what I would or - der in - stead.

24 25 26 27 Sinatra Swing (♩ = 130) freely
I'd or - der love, de - li - cious, well - sea - soned and rare.

28 29 30 31 I'd or - der love, a big e - nough por - tion to share. Bring me

72 rit. 73 rubato 74 a tempo 75 lack of at - ten - tion's un - nerv - ing. I fear — that I'm los - ing my grip. If

76 77 78 79
 Cu - pid keeps up — this sub - stand - ard ser - vice, I'm screw - in' him out — of his tip! He

80 molto rit. 81 82
 don't get no tip! —

Kickline! 83 84 85 86 poco accel.
 I'd or - der love, ap - pe - tiz - er, main course and des - sert — Ball - Change! Yes,

Slightly Faster 87 88 89 90 poco accel.
 I'd or - der love, e - ven if it was pep - pered with hurt — 'cause at

A Tempo 91 92 93 94
 least I could sa - vor the way that it feels to not eat a - lone for each one of my meals. There's a lot on the men - u, I'd have some - thin' else — if I — could. — But

95 96 97 98

99 100 101 102
 I'd or - der love, — 'cause there's noth - in' else — on earth — that tastes so good!

103 104 105 106
 Mmm, it tastes so good. — Oh, so — ver - y good. —

107 108 109 110
 So good, — so good. —